

Pearl Hogrefe Sophomore Scholarship in Creative Writing

Application Deadline: Monday, March 5, 2018

Up to 2 awarded of $1,000 each

The English Department's Pearl Hogrefe Creative Writing Fund awards the Sophomore Scholarship in the amount of $1,000 toward tuition to up to two promising sophomores (between 32-59 overall credits applied to degree program) who exhibit original and imaginative use of form and language; show evidence of having promise in creative writing; GPA in the major of at least 3.0. Submission should include one or two short stories, or a collection of poems, screenplay or play excerpt, or nonfiction essay—any/all totaling not more than 5000 words. Candidates will also include the name of one Creative Writing faculty member who has agreed to serve as a reference. Materials will be submitted/attached to this cover sheet as a portfolio during the English Department spring awards and scholarship submission process. Name must be left OFF of portfolio itself.
